

Online Violence Prevention Resources

Childnet International

www.childnet-int.org

Childnet International's mission is to work in partnership with others around the world to help make the internet a great and safe place for children. Childnet works in 3 main areas of Access, Awareness, Protection and Policy. Information is available in English, Dutch, French, and Spanish.

Center for Disease Control & Prevention

<http://www.cdc.gov/ViolencePrevention/pdf/EA-brief-a.pdf>

Electronic Media and Youth Violence: A CDC Issue Brief for Educators and Caregivers

Center on Media and Child Health

www.cmch.tv

The Center on Media and Child Health is dedicated to understanding and responding to the effects of media on the physical, mental, and social health of children through research, production, and education. CMCH has educational information available for adults about cyberbullying.

Common Sense Media

www.common sense media.org

Common Sense Media provides an informative five minute video about cyberbullying as well as cyberbullying prevention education for adults.

Connect2Help

www.connect2help.org

Connect2Help is a resource website that provides referrals to cyberbullying resources in local areas.

Connect Safely

www.connectsafely.org

Connect Safely is a sister-site of safekids.com. This website is for parents, teens, educators, advocates- everyone engaged in and interested in the impact of the social Web. Education materials are available about cyberbullying prevention.

Cyberbullying Research Center

www.cyberbullying.us

The Cyberbullying Research Center is dedicated to providing up-to-date information about the nature, extent, causes, and consequences of cyberbullying among adolescents. This resource also provides educational cyberbullying presentations.

Cyberbully 411

www.cyberbully411.org

Cyberbully411 provides resources for adolescents who have questions about or have been targeted by online harassment. Cyberbullying 411 is an accurate website that provides information about internet harassment that is engaging and is designed to reach older adolescents.

CyberSmart!

www.cybersmart.org

CyberSmart! fosters 21st century skills to increase student engagement and prepare students to achieve in today's digital society. CyberSmart! directly addresses online safety and security issues with a clear focus on educational objectives.

Dr. Larry Rosen

www.csudh.edu/psych/lrosen.htm

Dr. Rosen's website provides information about cyberbullying as well as educational resources.

Dr. Nancy Willard

www.cyberbullying.org

Dr. Willard's website provides research and outreach services that address issues of the safe and responsible use of the Internet.

Fight Crime: Invest in Kids

www.fightcrime.org/cyberbullying/index.php

Fight Crime: Invest in Kids takes a hard nosed look at crime prevention strategies, informs the public and policymakers about those findings, and urges investment in programs proven effective by research. Fact sheets, presentations, and research about cyberbullying are available at Fight Crime: Invest in Kids.

iKeepSafe Internet Safety Coalition

www.ikeepSAFE.org

The Internet Keep Safe Coalition is a broad partnership of governors, attorneys general, public health and educational professionals, law enforcement, and industry leaders working together for the health and safety of youth online. iKeepSafe uses these unique partnerships to disseminate safety resources to families worldwide. iKeepSafe provides informational videos for parents and educators about cyberbullying. In addition, an educational DVD about cyberbullying is available for middle school and high school students.

Indiana Department of Education

http://www.doe.in.gov/issaa/bullyingprevention_pg2.html

The Indiana Department of Education provides cyberbullying prevention education.

Internet Solutions for Kids, Inc

www.isolutions4kids.org

Internet Solutions for Kids, Inc. engages in activities which promote internet safety for young people. With knowledge and expertise, ISK provides public health research and healthcare web site solutions.

i-SAFE Inc.

www.i-safe.org

i-SAFE provides many resources about cyberbullying. i-SAFE has a cyberbullying prevention program.

Kids Health

www.kidshealth.org

Kids Health is an informative website that caters to parents, kids, and teens. Each category has its own link to information that has been adjusted to the target population.

National Center for Bullying Prevention

www.pacer.org/bullying/mhs/demi.asp

The National Center for Bullying Prevention provides handouts about cyberbullying. This site also is equipped with a link to an interactive website for teens about cyberbullying.

National Crime Prevention Council

www.mcgruff.org

McGruff.org is a resource that provides interactive games for children. These games offer children the ability to practice skills on how to avoid cyberbullying situations. In addition, this resource also provides downloadable information for educators.

National Criminal Justice Reference Service

www.ncjrs.gov

The National Criminal Justice Reference Service provides professional references about cyberbullying.

National Crime Prevention Council

www.ncpc.org

The National Crime Prevention Council offers downloadable information for educators and parents about cyberbullying.

National Cyber Security Alliance

www.staysafeonline.org

NCSA collaborates to promote cyber security awareness. Classroom curriculum is available for adults to educate children about cyberbullying. Cyberbullying safety materials and previous prevention campaigns are also available.

National Center for Missing & Exploited Children

www.netsmartz.org/index.aspx

The NetSmartz Workshop provides tips for adults and youth about how to prevent cyberbullying.

National School Boards Association

www.nsba.org/SecondaryMenu/TLN/UsefulInformation/CyberbullyingInformationandResources.aspx

The National School Boards Association offers free cyberbullying curriculum as well as legislative and school policies.

National Youth Violence Prevention Resource Center

<http://www.safeyouth.org/scripts/faq/bullying.asp>

The National Youth Violence Prevention Resource Center is associated with the Youth Violence Prevention Center. It provides facts and statistics about cyberbullying.

New Choice, Inc.

<http://www.newchoicesinc.org/help/B/cyberbullying>

New Choice, Inc. provides statistics, prevention techniques, and educational information about cyberbullying.

U.S. Department of Justice

www.ojjdp.ncjrs.gov

The Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention provides national leadership, coordination, and resources to prevent and respond to juvenile delinquency and victimization.

On Guard Online

www.onguardonline.gov

OnGuardOnline.gov provides practical tips from the federal government and the technology industry to assist individuals in cyberbullying. Informational resources are available in both English and Spanish.

Partners Against Hate

www.partnersagainsthate.org/

Partners Against Hate is funded by the U.S. Department of Justice. This agency provides adults with tools to combat cyberbullying.

Peace Learning Center

www.play4good.org

This web site helps children learn and practice peacemaking skills. If you want Play4Good for youth in your school, please contact us at info@PeaceLearningCenter.org.

Sheriffs.org

www.sheriffs.org/about/WhatisCyberBullying.asp

Sheriffs.org describes what population is targeted in cyberbullying. This site offers tools on how victims should react and how to prevent cyberbullying.

Stopcyberbullying.org

www.stopcyberbullying.org

Stopcyberbullying.org provides cyberbullying support and resources for specific target populations: 7-10 year old, 11-13 year old, 14-17, year old, parents, and educators each have a specified link.

Teen Link

317-255-TEEN (M-F 5-9pm)
Peer Support, Crisis Line for Teens

U.S. Department of Health and Human Services

www.stopbullyingnow.hrsa.gov

Stop Bullying Now! is an interactive website for adolescents to learn about cyberbullying. A specific "webisode" is available about cyberbullying. Stop Bullying Now! also provides statistics for adults as well as prevention and coping mechanisms.