2008 Fall Conference October 15-17, 2008

Please join us at Christian Theological Seminary for a collaborative conference on domestic violence for faith leaders.

The IPPVID presents their final of a three-part series on domestic violence in conjunction with N2BLU's 5th Annual Fall Conference

Who should attend?

Religious leaders of all faith traditions including: ministers, youth pastors, education directors, parish nurses, counselors and lay ministers.

Not to Believers Like Us!
"NO HOUSE EXEMPT"

Many persons in distress turn to their faith leader for help. This provides a crucial window of opportunity for faith leaders to intervene and provide information and resources that could prevent a violent event in that person's life.
